Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!!! Just slumming it at home at the moment and drinking down the stockpile of wine. Seemed to have found a number of new additions thanks to Jill's "samplings" Need to get her playing tournaments again – the cellar is getting too big thanks to her cellar-door expeditions with Wali during the last tournament year.

As it is now 2015, hope everyone celebrated Christmas and New Year with your families and friends in style and naturally are now all back in training. Yeah – right!! I look forward to sharing an enjoyable moment with you at a tournament sometime this year. Speaking of tournaments, congratulations to all those who shared such a wonderful weekend in Ballarat in November. Playing numbers were very good again and some exciting matches were played but I believe there was strong evidence more members are treating this weekend as an end of year social get together. To lend further support, the dinner dance was comparable to the experience of a Masters "Ball". Good food, drink, social enjoyment supported by some excellent music and dancing. What a great evening so thanks for your support of the VMSA in this way.

Thanks also to Peter Wright (AMSA Prez) and his partner Irene, for being our guests on the night. Lovely to see a number of old masters folk at the dinner dance as well. Financially, the weekend was also a success for the VMSA thanks to the huge contribution from everyone who attended especially at the dinner dance and on Sunday. Raffle donations reached an all time high which really helps to cover the ever increasing costs of running our events.

You may or may not be aware but entry fees and dinner dance prices have barely risen since 2009 and will continue to remain that way for some time yet. The raffle girls did a fantastic job selling tickets and the addition of Libby Belton to the team was – let's say – a clever distraction! Thanks Libby and to our regular great helpers in Michelle, Linda and Lynette.

At the presentation on Sunday, I happily announced the 2017 Australian Masters Championships will be held in Ballarat. A lot of planning and preparation is now underway but we are getting in early to start the process of hosting this major event. Any suggestions of support or sponsorship of this event will be greatly appreciated. Just contact me.

In another important announcement, we confirmed our Masters/Juniors event in 2015 will be held at Westerfolds. The VMSA, with support from our major sponsors has proudly hosted this event for the enjoyment of our masters and junior players for the past ten years.

As we enter 2015 I want to thank those sponsors who supported the VMSA in the past year and who continue to do so. These include Steve and Lisa Walton, Terry Barlow and Wali Linhart, Max Smith and Garry Pedersen. There are other significant supporters and donators, all of whom we owe thanks but to. Grays – Inform Connection and associated logos, TS&L Neon, Combined Liquor Services and Squash Analysis - I thank you for having the desire and confidence to support us in what we are trying to do for squash in general but more so, for taking an active interest in the VMSA.

See you on the court in 2015.

GRAYS BALLARAT MASTERS 2014

HAPPY NEW YEAR EVERYONE!!!

Hope the start of 2015 finds you all safe and well.

Again, our Ballarat tournament was a great end to our tournament year.

We had 168 entries, including 15 virgins.

Numbers were a bit down on previous years. I believe it might have something to do with injuries that are currently affecting some of our members. I know of at least 20 players that were unable to play owing to injury. Funny thing though, most of them attended the dinner dance and were up dancing. (Dancing uses different muscles, I've been told). Great you could make it. Get better soon.

Special mention to our interstate competitors.

Thanks for your support.

From feedback I have received, the tournament was enjoyed by all, and for all the spectators there were a lot of great matches to watch in all grades. The dinner dance was a fabulous night as always. Sorry to all those who missed it, but I advise that you put next year's date in your calendar now.

Congratulations to the following players for reaching tournament milestones this weekend.

Leon Gallivan	25
David Lane	25
Cleo Nanni	25
John Sands	50

Again there was a great array of food provided by the Ballarat Squash Club over the weekend. Thanks ladies, and guys. You did a great job.

Our sincere congratulations go to Lou Morsch, who was this year's recipient of the Judith Goadby Trophy. Thanks for all your hard work and support over your many years of association with the VMSA.

My thanks as always, to my fabulous tournament committee, especially Karen and Ute.

Now we go to our next tournament, Bairnsdale.

Format for the tournament will be Triple plate, best of five games to 15, scoring a point a rally.

Unfortunately I will not be able to attend this tournament as my nephew has chosen this weekend for his wedding.

I will still compile the entries and get the draw ready, then my trusted assistant, Karen, will be in charge. All I can say is "you had all better be on time for your matches".

Have a great time in Bairnsdale.

Our Prez Lou Morsch presented with The Judith Goadby Award for 2014.

enhance our Association by tirelessly working for it's current members and encouraging junior squash who will hopefully be our future.

Lou moved to Melbourne from NSW in 1993 and played his first tournament that year in the VMSA Victorian Championships and had to play the likes of Bryan Casey to name just one, who managed to let him have a few points - and yet he still came back for more!! Lou then started on the VMSA general committee in 2003. In 2006 he was elected Pennant Director before becoming our current President in 2009.

Our sincere congratulations Lou. A well earned endorsement of your contribution to Masters Squash.

Left Lou stands with prior winners of the Judith Goadby Award, all of whom are still playing an active role in the VMSA.

This year's very worthy winner of the Judith Goadby Award is our very own Prez, Lou Morsch. Lou has been associated with squash and in particular, the VMSA for more years than he probably cares to remember. Lou is very passionate about squash and it's future and strives to

REF'S CORNER

A few tips for all markers (according to the rules of squash).

1. Be audible (What's that you say?).
2. The correct call for an incorrect serve is "Fault" (not out or high ball or anything else). This a new change to the rules of squash.
3. One all, seven all (not one together or seven together etc. etc.)
4. Ball hitting the tin is down.
5. Not up is the correct call for a double bounce or if a shot is deemed to have been carried off the racket. (not double)
6. The correct call after the score reaches 8 all is set one or set two

Our good friend Garry Pedersen is planning to create a new video for inclusion on our website called the All Time Legends where great shots are immortalized forever. It only takes one shot and players will be remembered forever for that shot.

Gary believes this will add interest for visitors to our site and have people coming back to check out latest offerings. I agree with him.

Here is the first video from Garry who has gone to the effort of telling all how the player did it. Enjoy. <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=BGkQPhtaX2A&feature=youtu.be>

AROUND THE COURTS - BALLARAT

Australian Masters 2017

The Australian Master's Championships will be hosted by Victoria in 2017. They will be held in Ballarat which will be a fantastic venue for our visiting states with plenty of touristy places to visit and explore during their stay with us. Equally good for our country participants as well. The VMSA Committee has already started preparing for this exciting event and one of our first tasks is to choose a logo and slogan. Pictured left is one suggestion we have received. We would love to get your ideas and plan to hold a competition which will be announced in the next newsletter. Keep an eye/ear out for more news as it comes to hand. Talk to your friends and let's make this a record breaking event.

Masters/Juniors - 2015 at Westerfolds

This popular weekend event which brings together Masters, Mums, Dads and individuals teaming up with their junior partner, is on the move. The weekend of 30th/31st May 2015 is the scheduled date with Westerfolds chosen as the venue on this occasion.

I'm giving everyone plenty of notice so planning for accommodation and travel can be made well in advance. Anybody with a query regarding the location of the venue or accommodation requirements can contact your Prez or tournament host, Jill Morsch for further information. Our contact details are on the VMSA website. Mark this date and venue in your diaries now and encourage others to come along. All standards are catered for so beginners need not be hesitant in joining in.

With the introduction of Online Entries to our VMSA website, please be aware that the Association has undertaken some major changes to the way the newsletter is distributed to members.

This and future editions will be emailed to members unless you specifically request a postal version through your Membership Details page on our website www.vmsasquash.com.au, or by contacting our Membership Officer, Pam Park at membership@vmsasquash.com.au, or on 0439 308 093.

Our latest newsletter will be available to view through our website as usual if you are a current member, and our past editions are available for all to view.

Happy reading
The Editor.

PRO-FILE

SQUASH FROM YESTERYEAR

NINE years ago in Ballarat a fifteen year old apprentice carpenter started playing squash, very quickly became addicted and embarked on a lone campaign to master the game. Consequently, in 1975, quietly spoken Tom Spark, having got himself a vehicle, travelled weekly to Melbourne and played Sunday "A" Grade for Keon Park. The team comprised Tom, Bruce Turner, Gary McIntosh, Gordon Laurie and Jack Morrell (the mentor of the group). Success graced the combination, but upon winning the pennant, Tom retired to Ballarat for two more years.

In 1978, Bruce Turner invited Tom to play mid week and an unknown entity to State First Grade. Tom commenced playing for Northcote as the team's No. 4. Dubbed "the unknown Ballarat electrician" (although now a carpenter), Tom proceeded to embarrass numerous established First Grade players who underestimated him. His performances for the season were excellent and he was promoted to No. 2 in the team.

Tom turned professional in 1979 and carried his quiet dedication into coaching at Ballarat. Would-be pupils are, however, currently deferring their demands upon Tom's attention. His own game is improving so much that he is concentrating on further individual development. This has required consistent dedication, considerable time and many hours of travelling as Tom is very attached to living in Ballarat, having been a resident there since he was five years old.

The Ballarat Community Squash Association, of which Tom is an active member, are justifiably proud of his achievements and so far this year (1980) he has won the Mountain District, Monash University and Western Victorian championships. His home town's own championship has narrowly eluded him although certainly not due to any lack of local support. Tom has obtained a State No. 1 pennant spot and Victorian representation is his immediate aspiration for 1981.

Tom sets an excellent example to all with his court demeanour and training discipline. Of necessity, he has had to virtually teach himself from books and by lone practise, but is quick to appreciatively refer to the help, advice and encouragement received from other players, his Ballarat colleagues and his wife, Chris.

Such notables as the friends made in that first season of 1975 get mentioned, but observers note that his style is individually distinctive and bears no resemblance to any of these gentlemen.

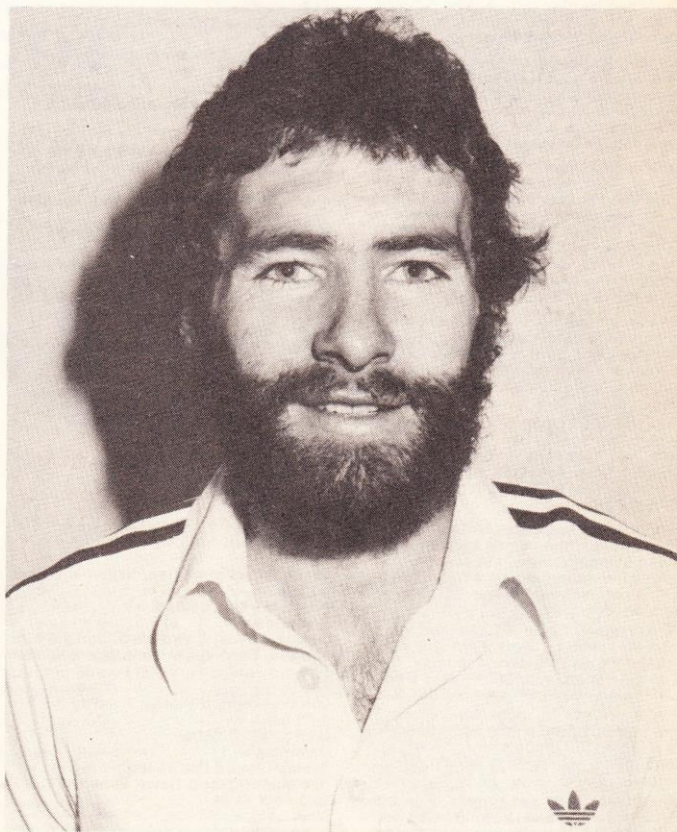

As a coach passing on advice, Tom recommends players seeking improvement should listen, read and experiment gradually, compiling their own effective style adhering to the basic requirement of returning everything and making no mistakes. The development of shots to be winners or to apply additional pressure on your opponent can then follow, but Tom believes that many a match has been unnecessarily lost by the making of errors rather than won by the playing of winning shots. Above all, Tom emphasises the fact that one must seek out hard competition regardless of how uncomfortable and difficult that may be. Commendable advice, all of which has worked for Tom, so maybe it's worth a try.

How much longer Tom can continue to live in Ballarat and pursue his squash aspirations from there, remains to be seen, because the better he gets the more inconsistent these two things become. Although migrating to Melbourne temporarily doesn't excite either Tom or Chris, it is quite probable that they may soon make the move and established players here will have their work cut out to keep the "Ballarat Electrician" out of contention.

Outside squash, Tom is at present a trade teaching assistant and leads a quiet life in Ballarat except when Melbourne friends ascend for the weekend. Being a Ballarat boy to the core, Tom believes he is only the first of many good players who will emanate from that city and, observing the development of squash in Ballarat, one has no cause to doubt this. ●

Tom Spark was at the forefront of squash even back in 1981. This profile makes an interesting read. There is also mention of Bruce Turner.

Left - Vic Squash Magazine - August 1980

Once the squash bug bites it takes a good hold if the body holds up. Left we see a very young Warren Miller pictured after the Mt Districts tournament in 1980. His drive to win has seen him excel in his chosen sport and it is still a thrill to see him play today. We all still marvel at his ability and tenacity.
